Student Reunification Release Form - Secondary

 School:

 Year:

For the safety and well-being of students, the school may implement a "controlled release" in the event of an emergency or disaster. The school administrator may release the student if the situation is deemed to be safe and the student is considered not to be at risk. Upon release, a record shall be kept of the temporary guardian's name, or the fact the student was released into their own care, along with the date and time of their release, a contact phone number, and their expected destination(s). In light of this statement, you are asked to choose one of the following responses:

- If we are unable to reach the school, we authorize the release of our child(ren) into their own care, provided the situation is deemed safe and our child is not considered to be at risk.
- If we are unable to reach the school, we do not want our child to be released unless one of the adults authorized below is able to claim our child (with the exception of medical/response personnel).

Additional Information

Emergency Reunification Background

In the rare event of a significant emergency or disaster, the school may use its emergency student reunification process. Examples of disasters where emergency student reunification may be used include but are not limited to:

- A major locally damaging earthquake,
- Overland flooding, or
- Other life-threatening regional or school emergencies.

Additional People Authorized to Pick-Up Students

While we don't like to contemplate it, during major emergencies some parent(s)/guardian(s) may not be able to get to the school to pick-up their child(ren), either because they are unable, or roads/bridges are blocked. Therefore, all parent(s)/guardian(s) are encouraged to authorize 3 additional adults to pick-up their child(ren) in the event of a major emergency, such as a damaging earthquake. When considering authorizing these people, they ideally should be:

- An adult (over 19 years of age).
- A trusted individual, such as a close friend, family member, or neighbour.
- Physically able to travel to the school despite some obstacles in the community.
- Located near the school during much of the school day (on average).
- Able to speak English (Optional: An asset post-disaster as translators will likely be limited).

*Those authorized to pick up students will require a piece of identification upon arrival at the school. ****

Out of Region Contact

This is a trusted adult who resides outside of the area impacted by the disaster; typically, someone who lives outside of Metro Vancouver. They can be important as a central contact for all members of your family following a major disaster, such as an earthquake. It is an asset for this person to be competent using computers and technology and to be live within Canada.
